Call to Worship -

Happy are they who know good and do good.

Their love for the good feeds them continually.

They are like trees planted near the river,
whose roots go deep and wide.

They thrive, bear fruit in season, and weather drought without wilting.

Those who are not so grounded will blow around like dry leaves in the wind.

Root yourself in Good, and live.

Prayer of Gathering - adapted from Psalm 131

Call to Confession

Confession

Although Christ is among us as liberation and peace,
we are sometimes divided against ourselves,
as we cling to the values of a broken world.

The profit and pleasures we pursue lay waste the land and pollute the seas.

The fears and jealousies that we harbour set neighbour against neighbour, and nation against nation.

We abuse gifts of imagination and freedom,
of intellect and reason,
and turn them into bonds of oppression.

Heal and forgive us.

Set us free to serve you in the world
as agents of your reconciling love.

Let us go to walk the road of service.

Let us go to break down the walls of resentment.

We will join the Servant of the world in embracing the refugees of despair and fear.

Let us go to teach kindness in our world.

We will gather up our sisters and brothers, and rest in the Spirit's peace.
