Call to Worship -

Praise to God our Creator, source of our being and wellspring of life.

Praise to God our liberator, who sets us free and gives us hope.

Praise to God the Word, love made flesh to dwell among us.

Praise to Jesus the Christ, who feeds the hungry and shows us the Way.

Praise to God the Spirit, fiery light and rushing wind.

Praise to the Holy Spirit, who inspires, challenges, comforts, and sustains us.

Come let us worship the Creator, Sustainer, and Redeemer.

Let us worship!

Prayer of Gathering -

How wonderful are the many ways we experience your presence!

Help us to draw near to you, that we may receive all that you have to offer us in this time and place.

Open our ears so that we can hear wisdom's call.

Set our hearts ablaze with your healing fire.

Nourish us with the gift of community.

Empower us to follow and to serve you,
our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen.

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, the psalmist declares that you have given human beings dominion over the works of your hands.

We confuse this holy charge with ownership.

We treat your creation as a resource to be used for our needs and our profit.

We find ourselves reluctant to count the cost of our failure to be your faithful stewards until disaster strikes.

And so we pray, show us another way.

Show us another way.

Your cry for wisdom and understanding echoes in our homes, our workplaces, our schools, our churches, our legislatures and our courts.

We confess we do not always hear that cry,
Resting in familiar habits, comfortable assumptions, and quick conclusions.

We ask you to show us another way.

Show us another way.

The apostle Paul proclaims peace, hope, and grace are your gifts to us.

There are times when grief overwhelms us, anxiety holds us captive, and suffering leaves us numb.

We wonder how you are at work in our lives,
and we long for you to show us another way.

Show us another way.

Silent Prayer

Assurance of Pardon

Hear this great good news:

God continually shows us another way.

God's mercy is as wide as the ocean.

God's desire to forgive is as strong as the wind.

Let your hearts receive the outpouring of God's love through the Holy Spirit.

Scriptures - Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31; Psalm 8; John 16:12-15

Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31 (NRSV)

Does not wisdom call,

and does not understanding raise her voice?

On the heights, beside the way,

at the crossroads she takes her stand;

beside the gates in front of the town,

at the entrance of the portals she cries out:

“To you, O people, I call,

and my cry is to all that live.

The Lord created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.

Ages ago I was set up,

at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

When there were no depths I was brought forth,

when there were no springs abounding with water.

Before the mountains had been shaped,

before the hills, I was brought forth—

when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.

When he established the heavens, I was there,

when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,

when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,
when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always,
rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

Psalm 8 (VU732)

The image shows a musical score for Psalm 8 (VU732). It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

O God, our God, how glo-rious is your name in all the earth!

Music copyright © 1994 G.I.A. Publications, Inc.

O God, our God, how glorious is your name in all the earth!
From the lips of infants and children your praises reach up to the heavens.
You have set up a stronghold against your foes, to quell the enemy and the avenger. R

When I look to the heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars you have set in their places,
what are we mortals that you should be mindful of us, mere human beings that you should care for us? R

You have made us little less than divine, and crowned us with glory and honour.

You have made us rulers over all your creation, and put all things under our feet,
all sheep and cattle, all creatures of the wild,
the birds of the air and the fish in the sea,
and all that make their way through the waters. R

John 16:12-15 (NRSV)

“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two systems of staves. The first system includes a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line has the lyrics "sing, sing, sing to the Mak - er too." with a fermata over the word "too." The piano accompaniment features a treble and bass clef. Above the first system, the chords Eb and Gm7 are indicated. A first ending bracket labeled "1-3" spans the final three measures of the first system. The second system continues the piano accompaniment and includes a vocal line with the word "too." and a fermata. Above the second system, the chords Bb7sus4, Eb, Bb7sus4, and Eb are indicated. A second ending bracket labeled "4" spans the final four measures of the second system.

Minute for Mission

Invitation to Offering

Sisters and brothers, the Spirit of truth is with us!
Each week we take time to acknowledge the many ways that God continues to bless us with good gifts.

We then share what we have with joy and thanksgiving, returning to God a portion of what God has given us.

Ushers will now receive our morning offering.

PAR "offering" recognition cards are available on the table next to the audio/video booth for those who wish to place one on the offering plate as you would an offering envelope.

Trinity's Website also has an option to donate. Just click on the "Donate" icon ...

*Offering Prayer

We give thanks, O God, for all that you have given us.

Pour out your blessing on these tithes and offerings, that they might be a source of blessing in our church, in our community, and in our world.

Through this act of sharing,
 may we counter fear with hope and transform scarcity through generosity.

We offer this prayer

in the name of the Creator, the Christ and the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Cause us to be wise in relationships. We remember National Indigenous Peoples Day and ask that you would give us pause to consider your wisdom and call to justice.

Prayers conclude with:

We experience God in a relationship from which we draw strength, courage and encouragement.

The ways of knowing God - as Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer; Father, Mother, Friend; may be expressed in the prayer Jesus taught us -

Hymn - 331 "The Church's One Foundation"

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "The Church's One Foundation". It features a treble clef and a bass clef, both in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are printed below the notes.

1 The church's one foundation is Jesus Christ our Lord,
2 Called forth from every nation, yet one o'er all the earth,
3 Though with a scornful wonder the world sees us oppressed,
4 Mid toil and tribulation, and tumult of our war,
5 We now on earth have union with God the Three in One,

we are his new cre - a - tion by wa - ter and the Word,

Commissioning / Benediction

May God our Creator who crowns each of us with glory and honor, Christ Jesus who bears our pain and shows us the Way,
 And the Holy Spirit who gives us light and life,
 Go with you and fill you with strength, courage, hope, and love.

Thanks be to God!

Choral Amen

Postlude - "St. Patrick's Breastplate" (St. Patrick)

Thank You and Congratulations -

On behalf of Council and the congregation MANY THANKS are extended to Norma Wrightly as Chair of the Local Arrangements Team for the Inaugural Meeting of the Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional Council (EOORC) held in Smiths Falls on June 7, 8 and culminating with a Celebration of Ministries Service at Trinity on Sunday June 9, 2019. We are thankful to the many folks that were recruited to assist with setting up and taking down at the arena, arranging billets, billeting hosts, child care, catering, dishwashing, decorating the arena and the sanctuary, Trinity kitchen convenors to name a few which made for the very successful conference. Your collective efforts proved Trinity, Smiths Falls will be a significant contributor within the newly formed Regional Council. Thanks to all.

Trinity, Smiths Falls will continue to be a contributing voice at the highest level of governance as a result of the appointment of Linda Stronski to the Executive Team of Eastern Ontario Outaouais Regional Council (EOORC). Congratulations, Linda.
